

Net units in university hostels (Male – female students)

Within the framework of the university interest to keep pace with the direction of the government has been state of e- enabled information technology units in university hostel (male students – female students) and its subsidiaries to provide them with computers and their accessories and make Internet network in collaboration with the Ministry of Communications for the application of service to apply for enrollment in university hostel electronically via e-Government Portal WWW.EGYPT.GOV.EG, as well as student's hostel service in various areas of information technology, as well as helping students to conduct scientific research related to their studies and not to waste their time in the search outside the hostel for places to meet their research desires

