

Faculty of law –English Section Ain Shams University

*Ain Shams University
English Section
Faculty of Law*

History

The English Section of the Faculty of Law of ASU was established in 2004. It was envisioned that the Section will provide a good legal education in English and Arabic for Egyptians and foreign students who know English and Arabic.

Objectives

The envisioned mission of the legal English Section is to provide the national and international legal market with qualified law graduates equipped with a high proficiency of legal English.

The English Section graduates are expected to have the ability to:

1- Establish themselves as professionals in the legal practice and judiciary via applying the acquired technical knowledge and intellectual skills.

2- Pursue graduate studies and research in different fields of law in Egyptian and international academic institutions.

The specific goals of the English section are:

1- Developing/upgrading the academic courses to be consistent with modern legal curricula.

2- Improving and developing the educational skills of the Faculty members.

3- Attracting foreign students who are proficient in both Arabic and English to learn the use of legal English in Egyptian and Comparative law.

Methods of Teachings

The teaching in the English Section combines classical and modern methods of instruction such as:

- Class lectures

- Applied/comparative teaching: Case law study. This enhances the student's critical and analytical legal skills.

- Supplying students with handouts and supplementary materials using the internet
- Providing class rooms with audio-visual equipment.

Conditions for admission

In order to be accepted in the English Section student must satisfy the following conditions:

1- Obtaining the High school Certificate (Thanaweya Aamma), or its equivalent.

2-The maximum number of accepted students will be determined by the English Section Board of Directors .The number of accepted students will be distributed as follows ( from the three branches of the Egyptian High School Diploma):

%50 from the liberal arts section

%25 from the science section

%25 from the Mathematics section

In addition, a maximum of 70 students of the holders of recognized foreign certificates will be admitted if they earned their degree in English with a general mention B and a minimum of %84 of the English Language Test in the High school certificate.

The priority for admission will be granted to students depending on their total marks of both the Certificate of High School (Thanaweya Aamma) and the English language Test. In case the total mark is the same, the student with higher grades in the English Language will be preferred.

Transfers from other universities are accepted on condition that the application must be submitted during the legal duration. Transfers from inside ASU university or from other universities, from the English section to Arabic Section or vice versa is absolutely prohibited.

Faculty of Law-Ain Shams University
University Campus- Abbasya BO Box 11566
Email: Dean@asu.edu.eg
Phone 26822308-26854754
Fax 24848576